PLANS FOR FOOD SHOW.

Meeting Last Night Indicates Affair Will be a Great Success.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Retail An enthusiastic meeting of the Retail Merchants' association was held last night in the Boyd Park building, at which plans for the Greater Salt Lake Food and Industrial association's exposition were further discussed. The exposition which is to open Nov. 23 and clase Dec. 4, will be held in the auditorium in Richards street. Preparations are being made for a display of cooking appliances and utensils, as well as food exhibits, which will compare favorably with such exhibits in any of the cities of the east. Demonstrations of various kinds will be given every day by firms who will employ a number of young ladles who understand their business, and the Westinghouse company will also have demonstrators on hand to show the value of electric cooking appliances.

At the meeting last night several manufacturers of the city were guests of the association and speeches were made on the necessity of the retailers and manufacturers getting in closer touch with each other. It was announced that practically all the space in the building has been reserved for exhibitors who will include a number of outside food manufacturers as well as local people, numbering in all about 76 firms. Merchants' association was held last

A feature of the display will be the A feature of the display will be the decoration of Richards street leading to the auditorium. In addition to the exhibits there will be good music, free vaudeville and beauty and baby shows, all of which is expected to draw a large attendance and interest the public of Salt Leke City in food products and methods of cooking.

At the meeting last night music was furnished by the Butchers and Grocers' quartet, and after the addresses were made the meeting took the form of a smoker.

FORCED INTO EXILE.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Okla, was an exile from home. Mountain air was an exile from home. Mountain air he thought would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps, "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever."
